Overview:

Media India Group proposes to organise Indo-Europe Wine Meet in Paris during SIAL Paris 2026, bringing together small and mid-range wine producers and distributors from Europe and India. The event will serve as a dedicated platform for dialogue and collaboration between some of the small and medium wine producers from European countries and emerging Indian wine producers and importers.

Participants:

30-50 small European wine producers

Background and Opportunity:

The timing of this initiative is particularly significant in light of the recently concluded India - European Union “Free Trade Agreement”, a landmark agreement aimed at strengthening economic and trade relations between India and the European Union.

Under this agreement, import tariffs on European wines in India—previously as high as 150% - will be significantly reduced in phases to around 20% for premium wines and about 30% for mid-range wines, making European wines more accessible to the fast-growing Indian market.

This major policy shift opens new opportunities for trade, investment, technology transfer, and joint ventures between European and Indian wine industries.

Objectives of the Meeting:

- Facilitate business discussions between European (France, Germany, Poland, Italy, Spain, Portugal, Greece etc) and Indian wine producers.
- Promote import partnerships for European wines in the Indian market with all kinds of wines (Red, White, Pink) and Champagne.
- Encourage knowledge exchange on branding, distribution, and import.
- Strengthen India - Europe cooperation in the wine and beverage sector.

Participants - The meeting will bring together:

- Small and mid-range wine producers from France, Italy, Spain, Portugal, and other European countries
- Prominent Indian wine producers / Buyers
- Importers, distributors, and retailers from India
- Representatives from Industry associations, trade promotion organisations and chambers of commerce

Programme Highlights:

- Welcome & Registration
- Coffee Break
- Pre-scheduled B2B Meetings (Max 15-30 minutes each)
